

Uptown Saint John in conjunction with Imperial Theatre and select retailers is hosting a post-performance, safe trick or treat trail in the Uptown area. The day's festivities also include activities hosted by the Saint John Free Public Library, New Brunswick Museum and City Market, as well as a children's performance at Imperial Theatre.

A new Halloween tradition in the making, the Uptown Trick-or-Treat Trail encourages families of ghosts and goblins to dress up and spend Halloween afternoon in Uptown Saint John. Fun for the whole family, the Uptown Trick-or-Treat Trail offers a safe trick or treat route as well as many kid-friendly activities throughout the day, including:

Saint John Free Public Library (Market Square)

10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Halloween theme story time starting at 10:30 a.m., as well as Halloween crafts, activities and treats throughout the day. (Phone: 506-643-7220)

New Brunswick Museum: Bugs, Bats & BIG Beavers

10 a.m. - 5 p.m. (Regular admission.)

Who needs make-believe when the "real" creature is enough to amaze anyone? Join us at the Museum to make masks and models and learn many TRUE New Brunswick animal stories. Prepare for your Halloween Fun at the NBM! (Phone: 506-643-2300)

City Market: Get Your Face On!

12 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Artist Nate Guimond will skillfully apply your Halloween make up. Free; donations to Inner City Youth Ministry accepted. (Phone: 506-658-2820)

Imperial Theatre: Old Thomas & The Little Fairy

2 p.m. Tickets: $14. Babes 12-months and under welcome in arms without a ticket.

The power of storytelling and dance come together in this enchanting performance inspired by a book written by Dominique Demers about an old grouch and a special little girl.

Families are encouraged to come to the performance in costume! (To buy your tickets, visit or call: www.imperialtheatre.nb.ca / 506-674-4100)

Uptown Saint John Trick-or-Treat Trail!

3 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Uptown Saint John is pleased to offer a safe trick-or-treat route – a list of participating retailers will be distributed after the performance at Imperial Theatre.

