

The critics have been converted!

Spreading the good word

“Altar Boyz totally rocks the pop world . . . I suggest you book now!” — The Vancouver Sun

“Thank heaven for Altar Boyz! Totally hilarious! It keeps you laughing all evening long. If laughter is a form of salvation, my soul is clean!” — The Daily News, New York

“A fun (and funny) treat . . . Heaven help you if you miss it!” — GayVancouver.net

“A devout service of rousing silliness. Amen to that.” — Newsday, Long Island, NY

“You will definitely leave the theatre singing . . . the energy level is stratospheric.” — The Vancouver Courier
“Divine! A tornado of tasty pop tunes and nifty moves.” — Star Ledger, New Jersey

“Any of these boys could breeze to the finals of Canadian Idol or So You Think You Can Dance.”
— Surrey Now, British Columbia

“A perfect musical, no questions asked.” — TheatreMania.com

“The music is lively, performed by a small group of talented musicians, while the cast of five young men perform with frenetic energy as they brilliantly sing a series of upbeat songs and enthusiastically perform inventive dance routines.” — The BC Catholic

“Amen! Altar Boyz should be preaching to enthusiastic crowds for some time to come.”
— American Press Drama Critic

“Hugely entertaining musical theatre . . . this is a show that I could see again and again.”
— Review Vancouver

“Hilarious!” — The Journal News, New York

“This ‘sinfully funny’ musical had me in fits of laughter for an hour and a half straight.”
— The Peak, British Columbia

“An energetic crowd pleaser!” — Variety

“A swinging, toe-tapping non-stop 90 minutes of pure entertainment.” — Review from the House

“It sends you home with a smile.” — The New York Times

“What a fun night and a fantastic production to end the season . . . These heartthrobs had my own heart a-thumping.” — A&E Vibe, British Columbia